

Kylle Barrieau

Title

Project Manager
Ergonomic Service Leader

Education

BA – Bob Jones University,
Greenville, SC

Professional Registrations

General Industry Health & Safety
Specialist – Rocky Mountain
Education Center OSHA Institute,
Denver, CO

OSHA Outreach Trainer – General
Industry

Accredited Office Ergonomic
Evaluator (AOEE)

Language

English

Experience Summary

Kylle Barrieau, a Project Manager, has over eight years of experience in the area of occupational safety and risk management. Kylle's technical specialties include ergonomics, OSHA compliance and safety training,

Related Projects

- Conducted safety audits for various industries including global technology firms, property management firms, municipalities, water treatment plants, hotels, grocery stores, event centers, and restaurants.
- Worked with companies to review and identify claim trends and then, based on identified issues, developed and facilitated employee training programs.
- Assisted in managing global health and safety program for large tech company. Led a team of practitioners to meet the specific health and safety needs.
- Managed Worker's Compensation claims for a large tech company including submitting claims, working with the employee, and facilitating information from the Third Party Administrator.
- Developed written programs on a variety of health and safety topics.
- Conducted on-site ergonomic workstation evaluations in office and laboratory facilities. Coordinated meetings with employees, prepared reports for management, and assisted with the employee's follow-up.
- Facilitated remote ergonomics evaluations for international locations.
- Worked with retail stores to identify and correct various ergonomic risks.
- Managed projects to develop customized e-Learning modules from content development to publishing to LMS platforms.
- Assisted companies in establishing safety committees and participated in meetings acting as a technical resource.
- Worked with companies to establish and strengthen relationships with their insurance carriers.
- Developed and wrote safety newsletters for companies in construction, transportation, oil and gas, healthcare, hospitality, technology, and manufacturing industries.